(Considered and passed at the general meeting held on January 15, 2019)

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 The Rules of Procedure for the board of directors (the “Board”) of China International Marine Containers (Group) Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) (the “Rules of Procedure”) are formulated in accordance with the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China (the “Company Law”), Guidelines for Establishing Independent Directors System in Listed Companies (the “Independent Directors Guidelines”), Governance Standards of Listed Companies (the “Governance Standards”), Articles of Association of China International Marine Containers (Group) Co., Ltd. (the “Articles of Association”) and other relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents to regulate the discussion procedures of the Board and to improve the working efficiency and scientific decision-making levels of the Board.

Article 2 The Board is the executive arm of the Company’s general meeting of shareholders. It performs its duties and implements the resolutions passed at the general meetings according to the Company Law, Independent Directors Guidelines, Governance Standards, Articles of Association and the Rules of Procedure. The Board shall be accountable and report to the shareholders’ general meeting.

Article 3 The Rules of Procedure is a binding document to regulate the action conducted by the Board and ensure the scientific and efficient operation of the Board.

CHAPTER II COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

Section 1 General Rules

Article 4 The Board shall consist of eight members, including one Chairman, one Vice Chairman and three independent directors.

Directors may hold a concurrent post as president or other senior management personnel of the Company, provided that the total number of directors who are serving concurrently as president or other senior management personnel together with the staff representative director shall not be more than two.

Article 5 Directors shall be natural persons and shall not be required to hold any shares in the Company.

Article 6 A person who falls into any of the following circumstances shall not serve as a director of the Company:

- (1) civil incompetence or limited civil competence;

- (2) no more than five years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for penalty on a crime of corruption, bribery, encroachment of property, embezzlement or disrupting socialist economic order, or no more than five years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for deprivation of political rights due to committing a crime;
- (3) no more than three years have lapsed since conclusion of liquidation owing to the bankruptcy of a company or enterprise where the person served as a director or factory manager or president and was personally liable for the bankruptcy;
- (4) no more than three years have lapsed since the date of cancellation of the business license and winding-up of a company or enterprise on account of illegal business operations where the person served as the legal representative and was personally liable;
- (5) a relatively large amount of personal debt is overdue but remains unpaid;
- (6) the person is under investigation by the judicial authorities after a claim has been brought for breaking criminal law, pending conclusion of the case;
- (7) the person is not eligible for enterprise leadership under the laws and administrative regulations;
- (8) the person is not a natural person;
- (9) no more than five years have lapsed since the person was found guilty of violating relevant securities regulations and involved in fraud or dishonesty as adjudged by relevant regulatory authorities;
- (10) the person is currently being prohibited from participating in securities market by the China Securities Regulatory Commission and such barring period has not elapsed;
- (11) no more than two years have lapsed since the Shanghai Stock Exchange or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange has declared the person to be inappropriate; and
- (12) other circumstances specified by laws, administrative regulations or rules.

For any election and appointment of a director in contravention of the provisions prescribed by this Article, such election, appointment or employment shall be void and null. Where a director falls into any of the aforesaid circumstances in his/her term of office, the director shall be removed from office.

Article 7 New director shall, within one month after being appointed at the general meeting, sign a “directors’ declaration and undertaking” and submit it to the Board and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange for filing.

Article 8 Directors shall be elected or replaced by the general meeting. The term of office of directors is three years, renewable upon re-election at its expiry. A director may not be removed from office by the shareholders’ general meeting without any reason before his/her term of office expires. The general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiry of his/her term of office (but without prejudice to such director’s right to claim damages under any contract), subject to full compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Written notice of the intention to nominate candidates for directors and their consent to accept the nomination shall be lodged with the Company after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting and no later than seven days before the holding of the general meeting. The minimum notice period of such written notice is seven days.

Article 9 The term of office of directors commences from the date of appointment up to the expiry of the current term of office of the Board. In the event that the term of a director falls upon expiry whereas the new member of the Board is not re-elected in time, the existing director shall continue to perform his/her duties in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the provisions of the Articles of Association until the re-elected director assumes office.

Article 10 The Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be the directors of the Company and shall be elected and removed by a simple majority of votes (more than five directors) of all directors.

Section 2 Directors

Article 11 Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall fulfill obligations to the Company as follows:

- (1) not to abuse his/her position to accept bribes or other illegal income or misappropriate the properties of the Company;
- (2) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company;
- (3) not to set up accounts in his/her own name or in the name of any other person for the purpose of depositing any of the assets or funds of the Company;
- (4) not to lend funds of the Company to any other person or use the property of the Company to provide guarantee for any other person without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting or the Board in contravention of the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) not to enter into contracts or carry out transactions with the Company in contravention of the provisions of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (6) not to, without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting, abuse his/her position to seize business opportunities for himself/herself or for other persons which should otherwise belong to the Company, or operate a business similar to that of the Company for himself/herself or for other persons;
- (7) not to misappropriate commissions derived from transactions entered into by the Company;
- (8) not to disclose confidential information of the Company without permission;
- (9) not to abuse his/her connections with the Company to jeopardize the interests of the Company;
- (10) other faithful obligations as required by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Any income derived by a director in violation of the provisions of this Article shall belong to the Company. The director shall be liable for indemnifying the Company against any loss incurred.

Article 12 Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association and shall fulfill the following obligations of integrity and diligence:

- (1) to exercise the rights conferred by the Company with due discretion, care and diligence to ensure the business operations of the Company comply with the state's laws, administrative regulations and economic policies, not going beyond the scope of business specified in the Company's business license;
- (2) to treat all shareholders impartially;
- (3) to keep informed of the business operations and management of the Company;
- (4) to sign the regular reports of the Company for confirmation, and to ensure the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate and complete;
- (5) to honestly provide the Supervisory Committee with relevant information, and not to interfere with the Supervisory Committee or supervisors in performing their duties and powers;
- (6) to fulfill other due diligence obligations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the Articles of Association.

Article 13 No directors shall act, in their personal capacity, on behalf of the Company or the Board if not provided in the Articles of Association or appropriately authorised by the Board. A director shall, when acting in his/her personal capacity, state his/her standing and identity in advance whenever a third party may reasonably believe that the said director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board.

Article 14 A director who violates any laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities or the Articles of Association during the course of performing his/her duties shall be liable for indemnification to any loss so caused to the Company.

Article 15 A director who cannot attend the meetings of the Board in person twice consecutively nor appointed any other directors to attend on his/her behalf is deemed as failure in performing the duties, and shall be subject to replacement as recommended by the Board at the general meeting.

Article 16 Directors may request to resign before expiry of their terms of office. A director to resign shall submit to the Board a written report in relation to his/her resignation. The Board shall disclose the relevant information within two days.

Article 17 In the event that the resignation of any director results in the number of members of the Board falling below the quorum, the existing director shall continue to perform his/her duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the provisions of the Articles of Association until the re-elected director assumes office.

Other than the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a director shall become effective upon submission of his/her resignation report to the Board.

Article 18 Upon a director's resignation becoming effective or at the expiry of his/her term of office, the director shall complete all handover procedures with the Board, and his/her fiduciary obligations to the Company and the shareholders shall not necessarily cease after the termination of tenure and shall remain effective within one year after the termination of tenure.

Article 19 Directors may receive appropriate remuneration. The Board shall propose plans on the amount of remuneration and the manner of receiving the same for the shareholders' general meeting to approve.

The Company shall not in any manner pay taxes for or on behalf of its directors.

Section 3 Chairman of the Board

Article 20 Chairman of the Board is the legal representative of the Company.

Article 21 The Chairman of the Board shall perform the following duties and powers:

- (1) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over Board meetings;
- (2) to supervise and monitor the implementation of resolutions of Board meetings;
- (3) to sign share certificates, debentures and other quoted securities of the Company;
- (4) to sign important documents of the Board and other documents which should be signed by the Company's legal representative;
- (5) to exercise the authority and powers of a legal representative;
- (6) to exercise special discretionary power on corporate affairs in accordance with laws and in the Company's interests in case of emergency situations such as the occurrence of natural disasters of an exceptional scale and other force majeure events, and provide aftermath reports to the Board and shareholders' general meeting;
- (7) other duties and powers as authorised by the Board.

Article 22 The vice Chairman shall assist the Chairman in performing his/her duties. If the Chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, such duties shall be performed by the vice Chairman. If the vice Chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, a director shall be elected jointly by more than half of all directors to perform such duties.

CHAPTER IV INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR(S)

Article 23 The Company shall have three independent directors. And at least one of them shall have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related accounting management expertise.

Independent directors refer to directors who assume no other office except as a director in the Company, and have no relationship with the Company and substantial shareholders which may hinder his/her independent and objective judgment.

Article 24 Independent directors shall have the duty to act in good faith and conduct due diligence for the benefit of the Company and all its shareholders. An independent director shall exercise his/her duties seriously to protect the interests of the Company as a whole, especially protecting the legal interests of minority shareholders from being infringed in accordance with the requirements of relevant laws and regulations.

An independent director shall perform his duties independently and not be affected by the Company's substantial shareholders, de facto controller or other entities or individuals that is interested in the Company.

Article 25 The independent Directors shall attend the Board meeting as scheduled, understand the Company's production and operation, and actively investigate and obtain the conditions and information necessary for decision-making.

The independent directors shall submit the annual report to the Company's annual general meeting to state the performance of their duties.

Article 26 Independent directors to be appointed shall satisfy the following fundamental requirements:

- (1) to be qualified for directors of listed companies as provided in laws, administrative regulations and other relevant regulations;
- (2) to be independent as required by administrative regulations and other relevant regulations;
- (3) to be in command of the basic knowledge of the operation of listed companies, and be familiar with relevant laws, administrative regulations, and regulations and rules;
- (4) having at least five years of work experiences in legal, economic areas or other experiences indispensable for performing the duties as independent directors;
- (5) other conditions provided by the Articles of Association; and
- (6) to meet the requirements for the qualification of an independent director as prescribed in the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 27 Independent directors shall be independent. The following persons shall not act as independent directors:

- (1) the employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, and their lineal relatives and major social connections (lineal relatives refer to spouses, parents and children, and the major social connections refer to brothers and sisters, parents-in-law, daughters-in-law, sons-in-law, spouses of brothers and sisters, and brothers and sisters of spouses);
- (2) the natural person shareholders directly or indirectly holding more than 1% of issued shares of the Company or any of the ten largest shareholders of the Company and their lineal relatives;
- (3) persons who hold a position in the shareholders directly or indirectly holding more than 5% of issued shares of the Company or any of the five largest shareholders of the Company and their lineal relatives;
- (4) persons who, at any time during the immediately preceding period of one year, have fallen into any of the three categories listed above;
- (5) persons providing financial, legal and consultation services to the Company or its subsidiaries;
- (6) other persons specified by the Articles of Association; and
- (7) other persons as prescribed by the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 28 The Board, the Supervisory Committee, or shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of issued shares of the Company are entitled to nominate independent directors to be elected at the general meetings.

Article 29 Nominator(s) of independent directors shall obtain the consent of the nominee prior to any nomination. The nominator shall acquire all the personal particulars of his/her nominee as to their profession, education, job position, detailed work experiences, and all part-time jobs, and comment on their qualifications and independence for the post of independent directors. The nominee shall make announcement that they have no relationship with the Company to hinder its independent and objective judgment.

Prior to the general meeting for independent directors' election, the Board of the Company shall make announcement regarding the above matters pursuant to the regulations.

Article 30 At the time when the Company issues the notice of the shareholders' general meeting convened for the election of independent directors, the Company shall submit the relevant information of all nominees (including, but not limited to, the nominator's declaration, the candidate's declaration, and the independent director's biographical details) to the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. In the case that the Board has objection to the relevant information on the nominees, a written opinion of the Board shall be also submitted.

In accordance with the "Guidelines of China Securities Regulatory Commission for Establishing Independent Directors System in Listed Companies", the Shenzhen Stock Exchange may review the qualification and independence of the candidate within 15 working days from the day the above-mentioned information are received. In the event that the candidate is objected by the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, the Company shall immediately amend relevant proposals for election of independent directors and publish an announcement, and shall not propose such candidate to the shareholders' general meeting for election of independent directors, but such candidate is eligible for election as a director.

Article 31 When holding a shareholders' general meeting for the election of independent directors, the Board of the Company shall clarify whether the candidate has been objected by the Stock Exchange.

Article 32 The term of office of the independent directors shall be the same as that of the directors for each session, and they may be re-appointed consecutively on expiration, however, they shall not be re-appointed for two consecutive sessions or more.

Upon expiration of two sessions of the term of office, the independent directors may continue to act as directors rather than independent directors.

Article 33 Apart from performing the general duties as a director, the independent directors shall issue their independent opinions to the Board or general meetings in respect of the following matters:

- (1) nomination, appointment and removal of directors;
- (2) appointment or removal of senior management member;
- (3) remuneration of directors and senior management member of the Company;
- (4) borrowings or other fund transfers, existing or newly occurred, advanced by the Company to its shareholders, de facto controllers and their related enterprises involving the amounts of more than RMB3 million or 5% of the latest audited net assets value of the Company and whether the Company has adopted any effective measures to recover the debts;
- (5) any matter deemed by independent directors as possibly prejudicing the interests of minority shareholders;
- (6) to make a specific statement in the annual reports on the accrual and current external guarantees of the Company and the implementation of relevant provisions and express their independent opinions therein;
- (7) to give an independent opinion on the Board's not making a cash profit distribution proposal; and
- (8) other matters specified in the Articles of Association.

Independent Directors shall make any of the following opinions in respect of the above-mentioned matters: consent; qualified opinion and the reasons hereto; adverse opinion and the reasons hereto; unable to present opinions and the obstacles hereto.

Article 34 In the case that relevant matters are discloseable, the Company shall make announcement for the opinion of the independent directors. In case that the opinions of the independent directors are so diversified that no consensus is reached, the Board shall disclose the opinions of each of independent directors respectively.

Article 35 In addition to the powers of directors conferred by laws and administrative regulations, the Company shall grant the following special powers to the independent directors:

- (1) Substantial connected transactions (representing the connected transactions proposed to be entered into between the Company and a connected person with a total amount exceeding RMB3,000,000 or 5% of the Company's latest audited net assets value) shall be approved by independent directors before submission to the Board for discussion;

Before making a judgment, independent directors may appoint an intermediary to issue the report of independent financial adviser as the basis for their judgment.

- (2) to propose to the Board for the appointment or removal of accounting firms;
- (3) to propose to the Board to convene extraordinary general meetings;
- (4) to propose to convene the Board meetings;
- (5) to engage independently external auditors and advisers;
- (6) to publicly obtain the rights to vote from the shareholders prior to the general meetings.

To exercise the above-mentioned powers, the independent director(s) shall obtain the consent of more than half of all the independent directors.

Where any such proposal is not adopted or any such power cannot be exercised normally, the Company shall disclose the relevant information.

Article 36 Upon unanimous consent of all the independent directors, independent directors may appoint external auditing and consulting agencies independently to provide auditing or consulting services on specific matters of the Company at the expense of the Company.

Article 37 The Company shall provide all the necessary conditions to the independent directors:

- (1) The Company shall ensure that independent directors are entitled to the same right to information as other directors. For the matters required to be decided by the Board, the Company shall advise the independent directors in advance within stipulated time and provide them with adequate information. If the independent directors think that the said information is insufficient, the independent directors are entitled to request supplemental information. Where two or more independent directors are of the view that the information is insufficient or the demonstrations are not specific, they may jointly propose in writing to the Board to postpone the meeting of the Board or the discussion of the matter in question, and the Board is obliged to accept such proposal. The information provided by the Company to the independent directors shall be kept by the Company and the independent directors for a period of no less than five years;
- (2) The Company shall provide the independent directors with the necessary working conditions to perform their duties. The secretary to the Board of the Company shall assist the independent directors in the performance of their duties, including but not limited to the provision of briefing and materials. The secretary to the Board shall undergo relevant procedures in respect of the announcement at the Shenzhen Stock Exchange in due course in relation to the independent opinion, proposals and written statement required to be announced;

- (3) When the independent directors are performing their duties, employees of the Company shall cooperate with them practically and shall not refuse, obstruct, or conceal or interfere with the exercise of their powers independently;
- (4) Expenses regarding engaging intermediaries by the independent directors or other expenses necessary for exercise of their powers shall be borne by the Company;
- (5) The Company shall pay the independent directors subsidies of appropriate sums. The standards of the said subsidies shall be proposed by the Board and approved by the general meeting and shall be disclosed in the annual report of the Company. Apart from the above-mentioned subsidies, the independent directors shall not acquire other additional and undisclosed interests from the Company and its substantial shareholders or institutions and officers of common interests with the Company;
- (6) The Company shall establish the necessary insurance mechanism for independent directors to minimize risks possibly incurred by normal performance of the duties of the independent directors.

Article 38 Independent directors shall convene meeting of the independent directors at least once each year to exchange working experiences, summarize experiences and lessons and probe into working ideas.

Article 39 In case an independent director fails to personally attend the Board meetings three times consecutively, the Board shall recommend the shareholders' general meeting to remove such independent director.

Article 40 Save as stated above and the provisions of Article 6 of the Rules of Procedure and the Articles of Association which provide for the conditions when an independent director shall not be an independent director, an independent director shall not be removed before the expiry of his/her term. In the case of any early removal, the Company shall make a special disclosure thereof. Any removed independent director who thinks that the Company has not any proper reason to remove him/her may make public statement.

Article 41 Any independent director may resign before the expiry of his/her term. A resigning independent director shall deliver his/her written notice of resignation to the Board, and shall make a statement on any conditions related to his/her resignation or conditions which he/she considers the shareholders and creditors of the Company shall be brought to attention.

If the proportion of independent directors of the Board of the Company falls below the minimum statutory requirement as provided in relevant regulations as a result of the resignation of independent director, the resignation report of such independent director shall only be effective upon his/her vacancy is filled by the newly appointed independent director.

Article 42 Shareholders individually or jointly hold more than 1% of shares of the Company may challenge the independent director or propose removal against the said independent director in the belief that the said independent director has no qualification or competency to exercise his/her duties or fail to perform his/her duties independently or fail to safeguard the legal interests of the Company and the middle and small investors therein. The independent director questioned shall responsibly make explanation and disclosure about the inquiry. The Board of the Company shall, upon receipt of the relevant inquiry or proposed removal, responsibly hold a special meeting for discussion, and disclose the results thereof.

Section 5 Secretary to the Board

- (8) to resolve on matters relating to the Company's external investment, asset acquisition and disposal, asset mortgage, external guarantee, asset management mandate and connected transaction within the authorisation of the general meeting;
- (9) to determine the composition of the Company's internal management structure;

- (10) to appoint or dismiss the Company's president and the secretary to the Board; and pursuant to the president's nominations, to appoint or dismiss senior officers including vice presidents and chief financial officer of the Company and to determine their remuneration, rewards and penalties;
- (11) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (12) to formulate the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (13) to deal with information disclosures of the Company;
- (14) to propose to the general meeting for appointment or replacement of the accounting firms serving as the auditors of the Company;
- (15) to receive work report submitted by the president of the Company and to review his/her performance;
- (16) to evaluate and determine the nature and extent of risks the Company is willing to take in achieving its strategic objectives, and to ensure that the Company establishes and maintains appropriate and effective risk management and internal control systems;
- (17) to supervise the management on the design, implementation and monitoring of the risk management and internal control systems;
- (18) to exercise other duties and powers specified in the laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities or the Articles of Association.

The Board's resolutions on the matters set out in the preceding paragraphs, save for items (6), (7), (12) and external guarantees which shall require the consent of more than two-thirds of the directors, shall be passed by a simple majority of all directors.

Article 63 Save for external guarantees specified in Article 64 of the Articles of Association which shall be considered and approved by the general meeting of the Company, all other guarantees shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting of the Board and shall require the consent of more than two-thirds of all independent directors of the Company.

CHAPTER IV MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

Section 1 Convening and Notification of Meetings of the Board

Article 64 Board meetings shall be held on a regular basis. The Board shall at least hold four regular meetings each year. Board meetings shall be convened by the Chairman and written notice of the meeting shall be served on all directors and supervisors fourteen days before the date of the meeting.

Article 65 An ad hoc meeting of the Board shall be convened and presided over by the Chairman within ten (10) days upon his receipt of a request for meeting under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) if deemed necessary by the Chairman;
- (2) if proposed by shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights;
- (3) if jointly proposed by more than three directors;
- (4) if proposed by the Supervisory Committee;
- (5) if proposed by the president;
- (6) if jointly proposed by more than half of the independent directors.

Article 66 The form of notice of convening an extraordinary meeting of the Board shall be as follows: written notice of the meeting shall be served on all directors and supervisors five days before the date of the extraordinary meeting of the Board.

Article 67 A notice of Board meeting shall set out the following information:

- (1) date and venue of the meeting;
- (2) duration of the meeting;
- (3) reasons to convene such meeting and business to be discussed;
- (4) date of the notice.

Article 68 The notice of board meeting and the relevant documents shall be prepared by the secretary to the Board. These documents shall be delivered to all directors before the meeting. The Directors shall consider the documents to the Board and fully consider them to give opinions. Where two or more independent directors consider that the information provided is insufficient or the proof is not enough, they may jointly write to the Board to postpone to convene the Board meeting or postpone the discussion of the issues, the Board shall duly accept and disclose the relevant circumstances in a timely manner.

Section 2 Convention and Resolution of Meetings of the Board

Article 69 Meetings of the Board shall be presided over by the Chairman. In the event that the Chairman is unable to perform such duties, he/she shall designate the vice Chairman or a director to chair the meetings on his/her behalf. In the event that the Chairman neglects his/her duties for no reason, or does not designate any specific personnel to act on his/her behalf, a director, proposed by the vice Chairman or jointly by more than half of the directors, shall be responsible for presiding over the meetings.

Article 70 Meetings of the Board shall be held only if more than five directors are present. Each director shall have one vote in respect of each resolution of the Board. Resolutions of the Board must be passed by more than half of all directors (more than five directors). Matters relating to external guarantee to be considered by the Board under the authority granted by the general meeting shall be passed by two-thirds of all directors (more than six directors).

Article 71 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person. If a director is unable to attend a Board meeting due to whatever reasons, he/she may appoint another director in writing to attend on his/her behalf. The form of entrustment shall state the name of the proxy, the matters to be entrusted, scope of authorisation and validity period, and shall be signed or sealed by the appointer. The directors attending the meeting on other's behalf shall exercise his/her rights within the scope of authorisation. If a director does not attend a Board meeting, and fails to appoint a proxy to attend the meeting on his/her behalf, the director shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting right at that meeting.

An independent director can entrust another independent director to attend a Board meeting, subject to the condition that each meeting of the Board shall be attended by at least two independent directors.

Article 72 Upon the convening of a Board meeting, the Chairman or the presider of the meeting shall first announce the topics, and arrange the discussion in accordance with the agenda of the meeting. The Chairman or the presider of the meeting is entitled to determine the discussion time of each topic, whether to stop the discussion, whether to move on to the next issue, etc. The Chairman or the presider of the meeting shall earnestly preside over the meeting, listen fully to the directors present at the meeting and ensure the efficiency of discussion and the rationality of decision-making.

Article 73 In light of the agenda of the meeting, the Board may summon other persons relating to the subjects of the meeting to explain relevant situation or listen to relevant opinions. Attendees who are not a member of the Board shall not be involved in the discussion, or intervene the progress, voting or resolution of the meeting.

Article 74 In principle, the Board will not review the topics or matters not stated in the notice of the meeting. Under special circumstances where new topics or matters need to be added to the agenda, such topics or matters may only be considered and resolved upon approval by more than two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting. The Chairman or the presider of the meeting may employ the voting procedures to vote on the addition of the new topics or matters, when necessary.

Article 75 The Board shall conduct strict examinations on external investments, acquisition, disposal and mortgage of assets as well as external guarantees. The Board shall organise relevant experts and professionals to make assessments on material projects and then tender a submission to the general meeting for approval. Within a period of twelve consecutive months, the respective aggregate amount of external investments, acquisition, disposal and mortgage of assets as well as external guarantees shall not exceed 30% of the audited net asset value of the Company in the previous year.

Article 76 All directors shall perform due diligence on and strictly control liability risk incurred from external guarantees, and shall bear joint liability for loss resulting from nonconforming or improper external guarantees. The aggregate amount of the external guarantees of the Company to be considered by the Board under the authority granted by the general meeting shall not exceed 50% of the latest audited net asset value of the Company.

Article 77 The Board shall not, without prior approval of the general meeting, dispose of or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the expected value of the consideration for the proposed disposal and the value of the consideration for any disposal of fixed assets in the four months immediately preceding the proposed disposal exceeds 33% of the value of the Company's fixed assets as stated in the latest balance sheet approved by the general meeting. Should there be any inconsistency between the preceding requirements and the provisions of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed in respect of the subject matter, the latter shall prevail. If the shares of the Company are listed on two or more stock exchanges, and should there be any inconsistency between the listing rules of these stock exchanges in respect of the subject matter, the strictest one shall prevail.

A "disposal of fixed assets" as referred to in this Article includes the transferral of interest in certain assets but excludes the usage of fixed assets for provision of guarantee.

The effectiveness of transaction of the Company's disposal of fixed assets will not be affected by a breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 78 When a director is considered a connected person of the enterprise involved in a resolution of the Board meeting, such director shall refrain from voting on such resolution nor can he/she exercise any voting rights on behalf of other directors. Such director shall declare the nature and extent of his interests to the Board at the earliest opportunity. The Board meeting may be held if it is quorated by more than one half of the unconnected directors. Resolutions of the Board meeting shall be passed by more than one half of the unconnected directors. If the number of unconnected directors present at the Board meeting is less than three, such matter shall be put forward to a shareholders' general meeting for discussion and consideration.

Unless an interested director has disclosed his interests to the Board in accordance with the previous paragraphs of this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement was approved by the Board at a meeting at which such interested director was not counted in the quorum and abstained from voting, the contract, transaction or arrangement is voidable at the instance of the Company, except as against a bona fide third party thereto.

Directors with connected relationship referred to in this Article include those set out as follows or those who are under one of the following circumstances:

- (1) the counterparty of a transaction;
- (2) person who holds a position in the counterparty of a transaction, or holds a position in the corporation which can exercise direct or indirect control over the counterparty;
- (3) direct or indirect controller of the counterparty of a transaction;

- (4) close family member(s) of the counterparty of a transaction or its direct or indirect controller (including their spouses, parents and parents-in-law, siblings and their spouses, children at the age of 18 or above and their spouses, siblings of spouses and parents-in-law of the children);
- (5) close family member(s) of the directors, supervisors and senior management of the counterparty of a transaction or its direct or indirect controller (including their spouses, parents and parents-in-law, siblings and their spouses, children at the age of 18 or above and their spouses, siblings of spouses and parents-in-law of the children);
- (6) person authenticated by the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange or the Company that his/her independent business judgment might be affected due to other reasons.

Article 79 Where a director of the Company gives to the Board, before the Company's first consideration of the entering of any contract, transaction or arrangement, a general notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he/she is interested in such contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, such director shall be deemed to have made a disclosure as required in the preceding articles of the Rules of Procedure.

Article 80 The vote on Board resolutions shall be taken by way of registered poll. Each director shall have one vote.

Article 81 As long as all directors can fully express their opinions, an extraordinary Board meeting may be held by way of communication (such as videophone, telephone conference and facsimile), and resolutions passed shall be signed by all participating directors and kept by the secretary of the Board.

Article 82 After the formation of a Board resolution, the Board of the Company shall fulfill its information disclosure obligations as provided in the relevant national laws, administrative regulations and other regulatory documents.

Article 83 Minutes shall be taken for decisions made on matters discussed at the meeting and directors attending the meeting, secretary of the Board and the person taking the minutes shall sign on the minutes. Directors attending the meeting shall have the right to request to record in the minutes details of the statements made by them at the meeting. The minutes of board meetings shall be kept by the secretary of the Board for a period of not less than ten (10) years.

Article 84 The minutes of Board meetings shall include the following:

- (1) date and venue of the meeting and the name of the convenor;
- (2) names of the attending directors and names of those appointed by others to attend the Board meeting;
- (3) agenda of the meeting;

- (4) main points of the statements of directors;
- (5) the method and results of voting for each resolution (the voting results shall clearly state the number of votes for or against the resolution or abstention).

Any matter to be submitted to the general meeting of the Company for consideration shall be separately stated.

Article 85 Directors shall sign on Board resolutions and shall be accountable for the Board resolutions. If a Board resolution violates the laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association thus causing losses to the Company, the directors participating in the resolutions shall be liable to compensate the Company for the losses. However, if it is verified that a director had stated his/her objection when voting and the same was recorded in the minutes, such director may be exempted from such liability.

Article 86 Directors attending the meeting shall duly keep the meeting documents, and shall observe their duty and obligation in keeping confidentiality of the meeting documents and content considered on the meeting before the relevant resolution of such meeting is officially disclosed to the public.

CHAPTER V SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 87 All references to “over” and “expiry” in the Rules of Procedure shall be inclusive of the stated figure; all references to “not more than”, “other than”, “lower than”, “more than” and “exceed” shall be exclusive of the stated figure; while a reference to “include” means including but not limited to relevant matters or issues stated.

Article 88 The matters not covered in the Rules of Procedure shall be implemented in accordance with the relevant national laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents and the Articles of Association.

Article 89 When the Rules of Procedure need to be revised in light of actual changes in circumstances, the revised drafts shall be proposed by the Board and submitted to the Board for approval and to the general meeting for approval before implementation.

Article 90 The Rules of Procedure come into effect after approval by the general meeting.

Article 91 The Rules of Procedure shall be interpreted by the Board of the Company.
